

Ode to Arthur L. Vassmer
By Edward Brender

What can I say
That has not been said
In a better way
Arthur L. Vassmer
Loved his family
Loved the community
Pleasant to talk to
Helpful to all.
In 1969 Woodstock came
He filled many a hungry belly
With peanut butter and jelly.
When the crowd's cash ran out
He accepted their IOU's graciously
He earned the title "Mr. Woodstock".
He had his moment of fame.
To date, every IOU was paid in full.
Farewell, Mr. Woodstock,
Kauneonga Lake may never be the same.
