NOURISH YOUR NEIGHBOR - BETHEL COMMUNITY DRIVE FOR HEALTHY FOOD AND WINTER ITEMS

Bethel Healthy, the Town of Bethel, and Cornell Cooperative Extension, Eat Smart New York have partnered with the Bethel business community for the 3rd Annual Nourish your Neighbor Community Drive.

Nourish you Neighbor (NYN) is an educational food drive initiative that aims to build a community where healthier options are available for all our neighbors. A sample list of healthy items includes: apple sauce, low sodium canned soups and vegetables, brown rice, whole grain pasta, canned tuna in water, dried beans, and unsalted nuts. The Bethel Community Drive also collects gloves, hats and socks to support the Mongaup Valley Methodist Church clothing distribution.

The Nourish your Neighbor Community Drive will run from October 15 through December 10th. Collection bins can be found at the following participating Bethel Businesses and locations: Barrio Kitchen, Bethel Market Café, Bethel Town Hall, Body, Mind and Spirit Wellness Center, Duggan Community Center, Hector's Inn, Fox's Service Station, Local Table and Tap, Sorella's, White Lake Post Office, Woodstock Oasis, and Catskill Distillery.

Smallwood Mongaup Valley Ladies Auxiliary will be holding a Krispy Kreme donut sale fundraiser on Election Day at the Duggan School. 8 a.m.

Boy Scout Troop 101 will be holding a bake sale fundraiser on Election Day at the Duggan School.
